

2014 Regional Finals – Poetry Out Loud

Students from over seventy schools across the Washington State have been engaged this school year in exploring the amazing power and diversity of poetry, recited out loud. They will have worked together in classrooms with teachers and fellow students, culminating in a school wide recitation competition.

The next step involves the winners from each of these schools advancing to the next level of competition at the regional level, where they will recite with others from their area of the state.

The top students from these regional competitions will compete in the Washington State Finals on March 8, 2014 for a cash prize of $200 and an all-expenses-paid trip to Washington, D.C., (with a chaperone) to represent Washington State in the National Finals.
